Chan Painting and Poem

Abbot Anita Carter on 12 July 2014, completing a Chan painting and poem. Anita wrote:

When Twilight lights the Curtain
and pins it with a Star,
Remember your true Friend
no matter where you are.

Your Friend the Truth
the Truth of who you are Your emptiness, non-dual nature of all things, the Universe and the Stars.

So, when Twilight lights the Curtain
and pins it with a Star,
remember every step you take all you say and think is creating who you are.

Buddhist Discussion Centre (Upwey) Ltd.

Sanghanayaka Suddhananda Mahathero, President and Lord Abbot of Dharmarajika Orphanage:

Dear Mr. Carter,

At the outset, let me offer my hearty blessings to you, Ms. Anita Carter and the members of Buddhist Discussion Centre. I wish to convey my special thanks and gratitude to the staff and the management of Ishka who have taken much trouble for obtaining fund for our orphan and destitute children.

As you are aware of fact that for maintaining a big orphanage we have to be continuously concerned for multipurpose problem of which the food problem is the acute one. We have to provide three times meals daily of which the rice is the staple food.

In the morning gruel is served as breakfast which needs around 40 K.G.'s of rice. At noon around 120 K.G. of rice is needed for lunch and in the evening 100 K.G. required for dinner. In that case per day rice requirement is 260 K.G. On an average one K.G. of rice is Taka 38 to 40. Therefore we have to spend Taka 10,000/- (Taka ten thousand) on average per day for purchasing rice only (excluding vegetable, lentils and other curry, spices, vegetable oils etc.).

There will be a possibility of Taka 2,43,000/- (Taka two hundred forty-three thousand) after conversion of US$3,098 (after reduction by bank). We have decided to procure rice for 20 days which will be around Taka 2,00,000/- (Taka hundred thousand).

With rest amount, we can procure Half Shirt and Full Trouser for 105 children. The average price of one Half Shirt for children is Taka 160/- (Taka one hundred sixty) while one Full Trouser is Taka 250/- (Taka two hundred fifty).

Our Government has been providing limited amount of Taka twice a year as the Capitation Grant. Besides this, we receive uncertain lump-sum amount of grant which are not recurring but uncertain.

The amount of grant which you have been so kind to send is indeed a sigh of relief for three weeks. May all of you attain the merit of such donation for the cause of humanity.

May all of you live long in peace, happiness and prosperity.

May all living beings be happy.

With Metta & best wishes in Dhamma,

Sanghanayaka Suddhananda Mahathero
President, Dharmarajika Orphanage
And
Lord Abbot, Dharmarajika Buddhist Monastery

The Tara Institute and Dalai Lama in Australia websites state: "White Tara represents the feminine energy of the Buddhas. She is said to have originated from the tears of the deity Avalokiteshvara, when he wept about the extent and intensity of the suffering experienced by all beings. Tara puts Avalokiteshvara's wishes into practice, caring for each and every sentient being as a mother would her precious child. Students who receive an empowerment or undertake the practice of White Tara will increase their spiritual vitality, intensify their capacity for compassion, and overcome fears including the fear of death."

Great Stupa of Universal Compassion Visit

On Sunday the 22nd of June 2014, Members of the Buddhist Discussion Australia visited Atisha Centre and the Great Stupa of Universal Compassion located near Bendigo. It has been over 10 years since our founder, the late John D. Hughes attended this Centre and he requested current Abbot, Anita Carter to make a pilgrimage every 10 years.

Members travelled on a 25 seat bus, and chanted A Lamp for the Enlightenment Path composed by Atisha partway through journey. On arrival we were shown two short films on the History of the Atisha Centre and given a tour of the Great Stupa of Universal Compassion. While in the Stupa, Buddhist Discussion Centre Members read aloud Prayers to be made when you visit the Great Stupa of Universal Compassion by Kyabje Lama Zopa Rinpoche, helping to promote the Dhamma field. We made our own offering to the Stupa by chanting a specifically designed Buddha Dhamma Blessing Puja, assisting many beings to gain a better birth. Buddhist Discussion Centre Members also spent time in the main meditation hall and visited the monastic quarters at the Atisha Centre.

The Atisha Centre and Great Stupa of Universal Compassion is an inspiration for Buddhist practitioners in Victoria and across the world. It provides vast stores of merit for not only those who have worked to build it, but also for all beings who visit the site. The Buddhist Discussion Centre Australia congratulates Kyabje Lama Zopa Rinpoche and the members of the Atisha Buddhist Centre for their achievement; well done.

Vice President Updates:

Public Relations

The next occasion on the public relations calendar is the Buddhist Discussion Centre (Upwey) Ltd. AGM Grand Social Event. It will be held at the Melba Restaurant in the Langham Hotel (see above for details). The evening is a valued opportunity for members to make many wholesome causes with goodly co-mates in the Dhamma. May it strengthen relations between members, may it be fun filled, inspiring and nourishing. May all beings be well and happy. We look forward to seeing you all there.

Knowledge Management

“The touchstone of our methodology for gathering, processing and utilising information is knowledge management. The content is Buddha Dhamma.”

By John D Hughes

We are currently working with Isys Text Retrieval System to re-index all files on our LAN. We have added/copied all data from our old H: drive onto the newer I: drive. We wish to preserve these precious Buddha Dhamma materials, which have been accumulated in a time period spanning more than 35 years and contain much material written by our Founder Master John D Hughes.

Local Area Planning & Asset Management

The reorganising of our onsite storage and archiving facilities has progressed over the past fortnight with the shelving units and benches been set up in the new shed. The next phase involving the relocation of the centre’s artworks will commence once Frank and Anita have returned from their retreat in Hawaii.

We are presently looking into the acquisition of a router extender for our centre and the installation of larger projector screen for the Meditation Hall. Please advise Destin Nguyen should you have any recommendations that may assist us in the acquisitions of these items.

Administration

This year's Annual General Meeting will be carried out using the Centre's new projector. From now on, we plan to utilise this technology for all of our meetings as we take steps towards using less paper.

Family members and friends in the Dhamma are most welcome to attend our Annual General Meeting. It is a significant time for us to reflect on the previous year's highlights and achievements.

Fundraising to Enlightenment!

On 28th June 2014, Anita Carter, Frank Carter, Evelin Martin, Simon Kearney, Adam Richards, Claire Ransome, Nicole Moustakas and Destin Nguyen were present for the first official fundraising meeting of the year.

At the meeting we discussed the exciting and highly meritorious projects we wish to undertake as a Buddhist organisation. We looked at our current fundraising income and discussed how we could go about expanding it to be able to fund projects such as Bodhicare. The suggestions offered at the meeting were well received and we WELCOME many more suggestions at our next fundraising meeting (date and to be confirmed).

In other news, we have set up an altar for the Deva of Fundraising and Retinue below the God of Wealth altar in the Sariputta room.

Thank you to all who are participating in this new fundraising movement. May we complete and put into action our new fresh Fundraising plan in the near future.

'Blessed' Baby Blankets

At the recent Fundraising meeting, we discussed potential products to sell at our Kallista market stall and other fundraising opportunities. We decided on the label 'Blessed' to brand our products.

One of the products we will be making to sell is baby blankets. We invite any members, students and friends of our Centre who wish to be involved to please crochet, knit and quilt blankets for this project. We will also accept single squares which can be combined with others to create blankets.

Claire is happy to teach basic crochet to anyone who wishes to learn how to make Granny Squares. Please contact Claire on 0425 864 056 if you are interested.
