ABBOT'S REPORT

Lifetimes of Learning the Buddha Dhamma

I wish to see all of us stabilise this year to come to a sustainable level of practice. Practice that will move us in an ever increasing pattern of learning to come to wisdom and merit accumulation (as our mind develops we make more merit doing the same things), to make sure we die brighter than when we were born, connecting us to the Buddha Dhamma powerfully enough to continue in our current and future lives.

Welcome to 2011...

May we all generate the Enlightenment Factor of Joy...through the knowledge of our own death. How can we do this? We start by knowing that we will one day die... we should contemplate and consider this truth every single day of this year with the intention of generating a life plan that will make the most of what we have to do, what we want.

We must stop being a victim and become proactive human beings... know what we want to achieve this life... it may be 20 - 30 things... maybe we can order our lives into 4 - 8 parts with goals in each area.

Study the book "Peaceful Death, Joyful Rebirth, A Tibetan Buddhist Guidebook" by Tulku Thondup, to help us understand what happens at death and get our mind in order before death comes.

Through doing this we will come to joy.

This year we are designing systems to make it easier for our Members to know what is happening and what needs to be done. A To Do List is being created that states all the activities that need to be done on a day by day basis. Members will be emailed and can respond by recording what tasks they will do over the year. It allows everyone time to plan their life activities well in advance.

"All conditioned phenomena,

Contemplate them thus...." from the "Diamond Cutter".

All my love, Anita

UN DAY OF VESAK - 21 MAY 2011

The planning for the United Nations Day of Vesak 2011 is under way. Anita, Frank and Simon attended the first committee meeting for the event at Wat Buddharangsi Temple in Springvale.

The date of the event at Melbourne Town Hall is booked for Saturday the 21 May. Please put this date in your diary.

The Vesak 2011 is historic for the world-wide Buddhist community being the 2600th anniversary of the Buddha's Enlightenment. We have been given a grant of $1100 by the Victorian Multicultural Commission.

Ajarn Brahm has been invited to give a Dhamma talk to be scheduled on the morning of the event and early indications are that he will likely attend. The idea of having a procession along Swanston St of Temples carrying lanterns to the Melbourne Town Hall is also being considered.

GENERAL MEETING JANUARY 2011

Members are all requested to attend the next General Committee Meeting on the 29 January when the new planning schedule will be presented and explained. The schedule will list the centre activities which need to be done day by day, month by month so all Members can quickly see exactly what is needed and then put their name against what they wish to do for that, week or month.

This system is a transparent method to enable everybody to contribute to looking after the centre and will be very accessible to assist Members to plan their own merit making. The General Meeting is an ideal time for us all to see and learn about this new centre development. Thank you Peter and Anita for your work in introducing and preparing the planning schedule.

CHRISTMAS DAY FLOWER STALL

A successful Christmas Day Flower Stall was held on 25 December 2010 raising $482.75 for the centre and $47.55 for the Bangladesh Orphanage.

The flower stall was managed by Adam, and set up by both Adam and Simon. Flowers were sold by Frank, Adam, Melba, Linda, Kate and Peter. The money raised was counted by Pennie and Bodhi.

Well done to all members involved!

DANA

All members and friends are encouraged to collect and place any receipts for items purchased for our Temple into the Centre's dana box.

Evelin will be entering the receipts into our accounting systems, so that we can claim GST. We will also enter receipts for items that do not have GST, such as food; this enables us to have a record of the dana offered to the centre.

All you need to do is put your receipts into the box, you do not have to write your name on it as it will not be recorded in the accounting, but if you do add your name, the Devas and Devatas may read it and you can receive some additional blessings for your meritorious actions because they know where it comes from.

CAMBERWELL MARKET STALL

Members raised $193.75 at the Camberwell Market stall held on 5 December 2010 and $185 at the Camberwell Market stall held on the 9th of February. In addition, $206.00 was raised for the International Brotherhood Mission Orphanage in India from the raffle tickets sold on these two stalls and $35 in donations. $103.05 was raised for the Bangladesh Orphanage from the donation stand. Thanks to Simon, David, Julian, Michelle, Frank, Sue and Kate for contributing to the success of this fundraiser.

If you would like to donate anything before the next market stall to be held on Sunday 6 February please contact Sue Goodes.

NO VALENTINE'S DAY STALL 2011

It has been decided that we will not conduct a Valentines Day flower stall this year because it would fall on the Monday following the Hoa Nghiem temple visit on the 12 February.
